

The FCC should implement any program that would lessen the Indiana Telephone privacy law. We use to get several telephone calls every day and particularly at the dinner hour. It has been great not to have the telephone calls coming in. If we want something we will look in to it. We don't need hundreds of high pressure sales people calling all hours of the day and evening. Thank you for your consideration.

Jerry Higginboatham